

Schusterman Series in Israel Studies

Brandeis University Press

Series Editors: S. Ilan Troen, Jehuda Reinharz, and Sylvia Fuks Fried

The Schusterman Series in Israel Studies publishes original scholarship of exceptional significance on the history of Zionism and the State of Israel. It draws on disciplines across the academy, from anthropology, sociology, political science, and international relations to the arts, history, and literature. It seeks to further an understanding of Israel within the context of the modern Middle East and the modern Jewish experience. The series is published under the auspices of the Schusterman Center for Israel Studies at Brandeis University.

NEW Books In Israel Studies

Land and Desire in Early Zionism

Boaz Neumann

Neumann's close readings of archival documents, memoirs, diaries, poetry, and prose of the period develop new understandings of the Zionist enterprise. Desire for the Land and a visceral identification with it explain the pioneer experience, its impact on Israeli history and collective memory, as well as on Israelis' abiding connection to the Land of Israel.

Young Tel Aviv

A Tale of Two Cities

Anat Helman

"Anat Helman's Young Tel Aviv: A Tale of Two Cities offers a fascinating portrait of 'the first Hebrew city' during the interwar years. . . . Helman's study presents the rich texture of daily life and public events in young Tel Aviv as it was developing into a major urban center of the Zionist Yishuv. A must read for anyone interested in Israeli society and culture, urban history, and cultural studies."

The Rise of the Individual in 1950s Israel

A Challenge to Collectivism

Orit Rozin

Part of a refreshing trend in recent Israeli historiography to study the voices, emotions, and ideas of ordinary people, Rozin's book provides an important corrective to much extant scholarly literature, in Hebrew and especially in English, on Israel's transition to statehood and its early years.
